Dear Chuck;

We recently sent you oath-of-office forms for the watermaster and treasurer of District 47-0. We received the oath for the treasurer, but the watermaster oath was changed to read assistant watermaster and was signed by Amie Helman. Assistant watermasters are not appointed by IDWR, so no oath is required. If you receive an oath-of-office form that says watermaster, it should be signed ONLY by the watermaster. We have prepared a new oath for this purpose. Once the notarized is received in this office, the watermaster will be appointed.

Sincerely,

James E. Stanton
Sr. Water Resource Agent
