Tim - Their meeting was March 8, and Brandon Bedke is still the watermaster. He was appointed on April 1. From what I understand, he does not actually deliver water; with no budget, I wouldn't either. I guess he lives nearby, so can easily go out to do whatever. So I suppose that you could call this an active district. I can fax the minutes if you need them, but nothing really changed from last year.

Jim,

Do you know if WD 45-C held a meeting this year and elected a watermaster? Is it active? Our web page of scheduled 2004 water district meetings shows a meeting date in March. Did anyone go or did you get minutes turned in yet?
